Report of Director and School Improvement Council

DCC serves five high schools in Greenville County. The school has four buildings, housing thirteen teachers, two aides, four custodians, one counselor, one secretary, one Director, and one clerk. Enrollment was 300 tenth, eleventh, and twelfth graders. 187 students took work key assessment. Two School Improvement Meetings were held, and the members contributed to supplies, mentors, and new technology ideas for the staff. In May, the South Cluster had eighty SIC members for a general meeting held at DCC. All programs had two advisory meetings for their areas. DCC was awarded the Palmetto Gold, and with the funds, we improved the landscaping and purchased Promethean Boards for two classrooms.

Twenty-three students were installed in the National Technical Honor Society, and one student won State Skills USA in aircraft maintenance and attended the National Skills USA. Four Auto Tech students co-oped. Dale Earnheart's race car was on display in the Auto Tech Lab, and the class finished the electric car. The Construction class built a Solar house and installed the plumbing, electricity, and cabinets. The welding class built two trailers. The Culinary Arts class competed in the Pro Start/Safe Serve competition and won the District Chili Cook Off. The cosmetology class had two spa days on Saturdays, took field trips to competitions in Atlanta, GA., and passed state boards. DCC had twenty-three completers and forty-five concentrators. DCC joined High Schools That Work for career centers, and three staff members will go to the High Schools That Work Conference. The counselor and Director joined the Mauldin Lions Club to get glasses for two DCC students. A student from DCC was nominated for Governor's School and was accepted. Southside High used our facility for IB and AP testing. DCC hosted four middle school tours for the EEDA. DCC hosted four high school tours for recruitment. The National Guard team taught lessons on leadership, and DCC staff sponsored a field day. The center had two open houses for parents and community members. Staff planned a Shelter and Place Safety plan with the Donaldson Fire Department and Greenville County Bus Barn at DCC. Three teachers passed the PAS-T Adept; three teachers are completing their Masters in Leadership Administration; and all teachers, staff, and aides participated in the Baldrige Program. One staff member will attend the Carnegie Mellon Institute for Technology in Charleston, and another will go to Washington state for a Golden Corral conference.
